

Short-Term Loan Application Form 2026/27

Students enrolled on higher education course who are experiencing delays in receiving their student loans may apply for a temporary loan.

A response to your application will be provided via email within a maximum of seven working days.

To ensure timely processing of your application, please submit the following documents (note that failure to provide these documents will result in a delay):

- A supporting letter detailing your circumstances (e.g., the delay with Student Finance England) and a breakdown of the loan amount required and its intended use.
 - For example: £500 total: £300 for rent, £100 for bills, £100 for childcare.
- Bank statements from all accounts, with explanations for any credits/debits of £100 or more. Statements should cover the last three months and include those of your partner, if applicable.
- Confirmation of your Student Finance England application, which can be printed by logging into the portal.
